Rowden Manor - historic focus of Rowden Conservation Area
- One of 3 Chippenham manors created in the 12th and 13th centuries.
- Original Rowden House destroyed in 1645 during civil war.
- Modern site of former manor house still visible with civil war entrenchments and medieval fishponds (Note 2).
- Grade II* listed Rowden House rebuilt soon after civil war. Listed barns and 18th century gate piers.
- Entrenchments at the site of Royalist troops encampment during the siege of Rowden Manor in 1644.

Borough Land - ownership disputed by the Hungerford family and the Crown over several generations.

Mortimores Wood is an ancient remnant of Pewsham Royal Hunting Forest.

Englands-housing development allowed on eastern edge of Rowden Conservation Area after a public inquiry in 1996.

Note:
1) Aerial Photography was flown June 2006
2) Scheduled Ancient Monument (SAM No. WI 12036) Moated site and associated fishponds at Rowden Manor.
3) 1885 1st Edition OS map overlaid in yellow
4) Fig 2 Rowden Conservation Area Statement 1997.